Kelley, Richard	Independant News	10/29/2010	11/5/2010	Several news agencies confirmed that Special Agent Kelly Mayo made an air statement that fellow agents from the Air Force Office of Special (AFOSI) were investigating the abduction of his daughter-in-law, Metzger at the abduction site. Later, Captain Joshua Mayo in an interview with Denver Post reported that his wife spoke to him briefly and couldnt remember because she was told the matter was under investigation. HQ USAF times made reference to several news agencies that the matter was under investigation by the Department of Justice, i.e. FBI and AFOSI. Request for information to DOD, SECAF, Moody AFB PA, HQ USAF, HQ AFOSI and DOJ of Justice were denied because the matter was still under investigation. That time, it was reported that Major Jill Metzger was subpoenaed by a jury, failed a polygraph examination(s) and placed on the Temporary Retirement List. As of 1 October 2010, information has come to light that Metzger has now returned to active duty and it is assumed that the matter is closed. Request the Air Force Office of Special Investigation release conclusions, and recommendations it made to DOD or DOJ regarding Metzgers reported abduction in Kyrgyzstan.

	Fessier, Ken	-	11/23/2010	1/24/2011	On 22 Oct 2010, was at the AMC Terminal attending a space-A roll call and was falsely accused of using inappropriate language. Since that time, was on temporary 24-hour no-fly list, experienced informal retaliatory action, being denied space-A travel, and there have been rumors circulating that I was being denied space-A travel. To further complicate the matter, Travis AM not report this matter to the Military Equal Opportunity Office, suggest that the matter was handled in an "in-house" manner. On 14 Nov 2010, returned to Fairfield, CA (which is near Travis AFB), after a two-week trip to Asia. I was not heard or seen anything in writing about this incident. Shortly after my return from vacation, detected odd patterns of behavior (both verbal and non-verbal) from people know on base, which suggested they were aware of involvement in the incident at the AMC Terminal. They're behavior of either confrontation or refusal to acknowledge has impaired relationships with them. There is a challenge this false accusation by acquiring any data on whether it is true or not based or electronic, which makes reference from the following organizations: APS (AMC Terminal & Other Offices within this squadron). Copies of signed statements, messages, post-its which make reference. 60 AMW/JA (Legation of AMC Terminal). Copies of any messages concerning this matter; specifically, message laying on the counter behind the AMC Terminal counter with approximately 10 lines of text and name highlighted in orange at the bottom of the paragraph. HQ AMC/A4. Copies of any emails, letters, messages related to this matter.

Retallick, Michael	Elbit Systems of America	11/30/2010	12/2/2010	Purpose: To provide information to AMC/CC using enhanced and systems combined with a head-up-display to assist Mobility Air Force self contained approach and landings to austere airfields under adverse conditions. This FOIA request is part of an analysis to combine weather penetration capability associated with APOE/APOD access, safety, and cost savings. Background: At the Airlift Tanker Association conference Gen Ray Johns expressed interest to learn more about emerging commercial the-shelf technologies that will assist MAFs. Through FOIA channels obtained AMC Weather Delay information from 1 Sep 2008 - 31 Aug 2009 (attached). Specifically for the C-17, there were 259 airfields which a total of 3,155 sorties and 7,599 hours of associated weather delays. Unfortunately, the data does not breakout the specific weather delays, winds, ceiling, visibility or thunderstorms. Analysis: If possible, request weather information (ceiling and visibility) for each of these 259 C-17s would also be interested in any Airfield Suitability Studies that may be conducted for APOE/APOD planning where weather is identified as a critical factor. Example: xx APODs have ILS mins of 200-1/2 and x APODs lose x delays to weather below mins, or xx APODs have ILS mins > 200-1/2 but x APODs lose x day/year due to weather below mins.

Boeing Company today received an indefinite delivery/indefinite quantity contract from the U.S. Air Force for B-52 Stratofortress weapon system modernization. The company released the following statement: "This B-52 modernization program will include several delivery orders over an eight-year period. The Air Force announced a contract ceiling of $1.9 billion. This is a contracting vehicle that will allow engineering sustaining contracts, studies, production and other work to occur in support of the B-52. No funds were committed with this contract announcement. We expect our first delivery order to be awarded on or around 2011. Boeing has been maintaining and modernizing the B-52 bomber for over 40 years, including engineering services and upgrades to communication technology, allowing the B-52 to remain a relevant weapon system in support of our global missions around the world."

Collins, Corey	MasTec, Inc.	3/2/2011	3/30/2011	request that a copy of all Air Force Feasibility Studies performed in 2009 and 2010 concerning biomass energy be provided to us. The studies were conducted nationwide to identify renewable energy opportunities. The studies were referenced in a recent Air Force Civil Engineer Support Agency newsletter to have been published in December of 2010. We have attached a copy of the newsletter in hopes it will assist in locating the documents. We believe these studies are not classified and are possibly in the possession of the Energy Center and/or the Air Force Civil Engineer Support Agency at the Force Base in Florida. We believe the studies were commissioned by the Civil Engineer Support Agency, Energy Rates and Renewables Branch. These studies are part of the public record. Releasing these studies further the Air Forces goal of developing biomass projects through investments that will generate electricity that is renewable, at rates less or cheaper than current grid rates. If the studies may not be released in current form, we will accept redacted versions if the redactions are do not render the studies unresponsive to our request.

McClanahan, Kel	National Security Counselors	3/7/2011	3/10/2011	copies of a representative sample of 100 initial acknowledgement letters from FOIA requesters from October 2009 to the present. This request is for acknowledgement letters, not for the requests themselves or for an correspondence. By representative sample, we mean that the letters should cover as much of the time period as possible--i.e., some letters from October 2009, some letters from November 2009, some letters from December 2009, and so forth for the time between October 2009 and March 2010. This request does not have to be equally represented; we only request a representative sample, although we do request that each month be relatively equally represented, with approximately 5-7 letters per month. Because of the number of responsive records and the relative ease with which you can locate them, we do not see a need at this point to request news releases or a public interest fee waiver. These records are for research purposes and are not for any commercial purpose. If you need to charge us any money for this request, please contact us at the appropriate fee category and waiver requests. We request that documents or records produced in response to this request be provided in electronic (soft-copy) form wherever possible. Acceptable formats are .jpg, .gif, .tif.

Nazario-Sierra, Emilio	US Army	3/21/2011	3/21/2011	The Roswell UFO Incident was the alleged recovery of an extra-terrestrial spacecraft, including alien pilots, from an object that crashed approximately 35 miles from Roswell, New Mexico, in June or July 1947. Since the late 1940s, the incident has been the subject of intense controversy and the subject of numerous theories as to the true nature of the object that crashed. The United States military maintains that what was actually recovered was debris from a crashed experimental high-altitude surveillance balloon belonging to a classified project named "Mogul";[1] however, many UFO proponents maintain that it was a spacecraft and its occupants were captured, and that the military then engaged in a cover up. The incident has turned into a widely known pop culture phenomenon, making the name Roswell synonymous with UFOs. It ranks as the most famous and controversial of alleged UFO incidents.[2] On July 8, 1947, Roswell Field (RAAF) public information office in Roswell, New Mexico, issued a press release[3] stating that personnel from the field's 509th Bomb Group had recovered a crashed "flying disc" from a ranch near Roswell, sparking a media interest. The following day, the press reported that Commander of the Eighth Air Force stated that, in fact, a radar-tracking balloon recovered by the RAAF personnel, not a "flying disc." [4] A subsequent conference was called, featuring debris from the crashed object, which was used to confirm the weather balloon description. In response to these reports, congressional inquiries, the General Accounting Office launched an investigation directed the Office of the Secretary of the Air Force to conduct an investigation. The result was summarized in two reports. The first, published in 1955, concluded that the reported recovered material in 1947 was from a secret government program called Project Mogul, which involved high altitude balloons meant to detect sound waves generated by Soviet nuclear tests.
